

SIR GEORGE CAYLEY SAILWING CLUB

Horcum glide and accuracy

What is this competition all about?

As the description suggests, there will be two tasks, weather permitting, at Horcum. Pilots will accumulate points on the day/afternoon to become the overall winner of the comp.

This usually takes place annually in April or early May.

Rules

Accuracy – nearest the bulls eye.

Glide – furthest away from designated take-off (no turning!).

Entering

Available to all members and no GPS required to compete.

Competition notifications can be short notice due to the weather windows. The best way to keep informed is to watch out on the following mediums: Facebook and Telegraph.
