Andy Berzins and Dominic Curran talked on the matter – should be an excellent tool, no longer need to manually log in flights and keeps EP/CP pilots' files up to date on what they need to do i.e. to get pilot rating. Andy stressed that it was important that the coaching should be requested by the trainee and NOT the opposite.

It will only be available once pilots have obtained EP rating and was not a tool to be used as self instructing on paragliding.

WebMaster and Competitions – Richard Shirt

Richard Shirt brought along trophies for the winners of the Club's 2017 competitions and announced winners as follows:

Photography goes to Geoff Moses.

Most XC points on XC League for the Club goes to Steve Pickering.

Coastal Race 1st prize goes to Dave McDonald followed very closely by Geoff Moses.

No accuracy competition unfortunately in 2017.

Congratulations to all winners – Richard Shirt will give the winners their trophies personally as unfortunately none were present at the meeting.

Chairman's Report – Tony Dew

Another 4/5 meetings need to be pencilled in for 2018. None in June, July and August except the barbecue to be held in August which it was hoped would be as successful as last year's.

SIR GEORGE CAYLEY SAILWING CLUB

A note that ½ hour extra be included in April's meeting for assistance in GPS set-up and use.

Other Matters

With respect to various flying sites:

Bridlington – Club has received another letter from coast guards warning about flying past the coastal guard building. If it continues, there is a big risk site will be closed for flying.

David Perryman mentioned that the signs need to be replaced and a new windsock purchased. Tony said he would deal with jackets for the marshall who is necessary if there are more than 4 pilots and get a new windsock. Richard Sewell said he would laminate signs.

Club Outings / Holidays

Still trying to find appropriate dates good for Club members to do club outing. Suggestions were made combining with LCC a couple of days before and 2-3 days after LCC.

Other Matters

Tony Dew asked Richard Shirt if he could update online re information on coaches perhaps a photo and where they are located. Richard Shirt said he would.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 9h15 PM.

Next meeting at Carpenter's Arms, Fangfoss, Wed 18th April, 8pm.
